

CAHI
—
ICSA

2026 Industry Leadership Award Nomination Form

The Industry Leadership Award is the CAHI's external award, intended to recognize key contributors to animal health in Canada. This has included educators, veterinarians, researchers, and agricultural awareness groups who work tirelessly to enhance the health of both production and companion animals.

Please complete this form and e-mail it to cahi@cahi-icsa.ca by March 27, 2026

Part A: Nominee Information

Name:

Title:

Occupation:

Part B: Summary of Achievements

I. Leadership and Impact:

Describe how the nominee has demonstrated leadership in advancing animal health in Canada. Include roles, initiatives, or activities that show influence, credibility, and impact within the field.

CAHI Industry Leadership Award - Nomination Form

2. Key Achievements and Innovation

What are the nominee's most significant accomplishments, and how were they innovative or unique? Highlight major contributions, challenges overcome, and why these achievements matter to the animal health community.

3. Commitment to Animal Health

Describe the nominee's sustained commitment to animal health and their broader contribution to the community, profession, or industry.