

CAHI
—
ICSA

2025
Industry Leadership
Award Nomination Form

The Industry Leadership Award is the CAHI's external award, intended to recognize key contributors to animal health in Canada. In the past, award recipients have included educators, veterinarians, researchers, and agricultural awareness groups who work tirelessly to enhance the health of both production and companion animals.

Please complete this form and e-mail it to cahi@cahi-icsa.ca by March 28, 2025

Part A: Nominee Information

Name:

Title:

Occupation:

Part B: Summary of Achievements

I. Leadership:

Is the nominee recognized as a leader within the discipline of Canadian animal health? Please list accomplishments that demonstrate this ability.

CAHI Industry Leadership Award - Nomination Form

2. Accomplishments

What are the major accomplishments of this individual / organization that distinguish the nominee?

3. Innovative Ability

Discuss how the nominee shows innovative ability, such as:

- How the nominee's initiative and leadership abilities led to significant developments in the Canadian animal health field.
- Any obstacles or problems that were overcome by the nominee to achieve developments.
- How the nominee was innovative or creative in an approach to an animal health issue.
- Why the nominee's contribution was unique.
- Any other information that highlights the innovative abilities of the nominee.

4. Commitment to Animal Health

Discuss the role and the commitment of the nominee within the animal health community.